

About Heritage Trust

Heritage Trust is a non-profit organization, dedicated to the preservation, enhancement, promotion, and protection of the County's historic, cultural and architectural legacies.

The Trust serves all public agencies, private groups, organizations and individuals, who are interested in the preservation of Clark County's heritage.

In addition, we provide the following services:

- * Rehabilitation assistance
- * Designation to historic registers
- * Educational programs
- * Tourism support
- * and more...

Heritage Trust is pleased to assist any resident/property owner in Clark County with any historic preservation matters. Please call or visit the Trust office at the Marshall House.
